From the President's Corner

Time flies and our year marches on. Seems like only yesterday we were enjoying New Years Day and making all those resolutions. Hopefully, you resolved to bead more in 2017 and you are doing just that!

One resolution I made is to go through my bead kits, patterns, etc. and prioritize what I really want to work on. I have them scattered in so many places, one box from before the move, another drawer from collecting them for several years since the move, one bag from wherever, one plastic box. They really seem to multiply. And since I paid for them, I want to make them into the wonderful bracelets, earrings and necklaces I loved. I'm pulled in so many beady ways – geometric beadwork, peyote stitch, new beads. Isn't this a wonderful problem to have?

Let me know what you're up to. How do you decide what you're doing next? What is most important to you in your beading life?

See you in April.

Gina Whitlock, President
