From the President's Corner

This January has gone by so quickly. Of course, we had the Texas Bead Retreat this past weekend. I beaded the least I ever had but had more fun than ever. I finished my Moroccan Lantern from Kim Stathis and also a pair of Marcia de Coster earrings plus started on a bracelet.

Last month, we had so much fun looking at everyone's creations. Please bring your recently finished pieces or other memorial items you've made so we can enjoy looking at what each of us do. Each of us are unique and it's fun to see colors and techniques we come up with. We can put our pieces on the back table.

I want to welcome all of our new members. We look forward to learning more about you and sharing our beading experiences. Also, Cheryl Focht will be here for membership appreciation on Saturday, April 7 to teach a kumihimo and netting necklace. You will not finish this in class. The cost

Member Appreciation Project

Cheryl Focht will teach this kumihimo and netting class in April for member appreciation.

Several TBR retreat projects.

that Cheryl quoted for the kits is $70. That is $5.00 less than what Bead and Button is paying for the kits. The Dallas Bead Society will pay $30 towards the purchase of each kit for our appreciation of you, making your kit price $40. It will be helpful if we know an actual headcount at least a week before so Cheryl can have kits prepared. I'll get colors and pictures from Cheryl so you can plan what you want.

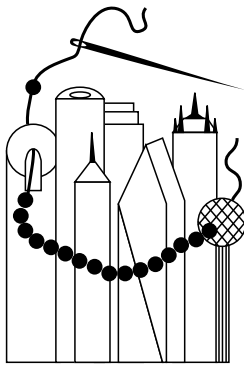

I hope to see everyone at our February meeting where Marilou will teach a great necklace (photo on first page). You can do several necklaces and join them together. It's cool.
