For the love of beads notes

- Currently we have no meetings scheduled. No one knows when Texas will let more than 10 people meet. We can resume monthly meetings at that time. If not at CCY then outside for a picnic or another meeting location. We will have a huge celebration and it will be great to see everyone again safely. In the meantime, for us, it is bead along projects. If you have any fun ideas to share, please let Dianne know.
- 2021 Board Elections are coming, please consider taking a turn.
- Check these out-
- Some links to sites where people can take beading classes via Zoom are below. Sue Cathcart did a 3-week (one 2-hour session per week) with Jean Power and the price is really reasonable when you don't have to help cover travel expenses for the teacher! There are some stores that are hosting them and some designers are managing their own, but even if their classes are being offered through a store, the designer might have a calendar on their web page where they list their classes offered and where. Here are some sites to start off with:

<http://www.citybeadschicago.com/zoom-classes.html>

<https://www.jeanpower.com/classes/portfolio/>

Please check your favorite designer's web site.

Heart of Texas Retreat has gone to Zoom.

Online Beading Classes by SocialBeadia, from Facebook groups.

One more thing, I just learned the WWBS is considering a scholarship to honor Marilou Porth. DBS could make a one time contribution to that fund if it is established. Please consider and we can discuss the donation and amount at a future date.

Remember When...

Hi everyone. First, let me thank our members who completed the August Bead Coin Challenge. All the entries were gorgeous and the messages inspiring. The names of all those who completed the challenge will be placed in a hat and a winner will be drawn by Teresa's great nephews, Liam and Luka. One will hold the hat and the other will draw a name (Teresa will also post a picture of this event on our Facebook page) and a check will be sent to the winner. Good luck!

Next for September, there will be no actual beading challenge to create something new. We were hoping to have a get together for a picnic for the meeting but to keep everyone safe that won't be happening. We will have our regular Zoom meeting on September 5th at 10:30am. An email will be sent to all members that we have an email address for prior to the meeting with a link to the Zoom meeting. All you do is click on the link at 10:30 and it will take you to the meeting. That's it! Please join us! We have almost 50 members and only 12 of you were at the August meeting. We really want to keep in touch with all of you and would really like to see you at the September meeting, please Zoom in!!

So for September, we are asking all of our members to tell us what inspired you to get into beading. Was your inspiration a piece of jewelry that you saw, maybe you wandered into a bead store, picked up a magazine, a bead friend finally talked you into trying beading. Then, tell us about your first beading project and why you chose it and then show us a picture of one of your first ever beading projects. We really want to hear from our members. We miss you!

Dianne
